

Kids Off the Streets

— A Project by —

Colombo Taprobane Round Table 3
(CTR-3), Sri Lanka

Colombo Taprobane Round Table 3, Sri Lanka request the support to raise funds for their project KOS.

KOS is focused on getting kids off the streets by providing shelter and education to street children. A contribution of €1.00 towards a fashionable Glow-in-the-Dark, blue wrist bands will endorse your commitment towards a street kid's hope for a future with a smile.

www.ctr3.org

If you can help us promote this project, we would be glad to hear from you. Please contact: _____

Colombo Taprobane Round Table 3

T: +94-77-771 5552 E: info@ctr3.org

All projects are with the cooperation of the National Child Protection Authority of Sri Lanka

Little work done, still a lot to do:

The Makola Certified School upgrading project at a cost of over €3,000 funds collected. This schools is for children who have committed minor offenses and the facility works towards upgrading the skills and education of the kids so that they can find employment in the future.

Was then

Is Now after Upgrading

Renovation of Jinaraja Children's home. This is a home built for street children in Colombo to sleep and learn. Cost €2,000

DAILY NEWS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 2004

Jinaraja Children's Home

Colombo (Express) Round Table 3 in association with the National Child Protection Authority (NCPA) opened the Jinaraja Children's Home.

The home was renovated at a cost of Rs. 300,000 and it will house 40 abandoned street children, giving them a place to stay while they attend school and are taught vocational skills. The school will be run with the assistance of the NCPA. Dr. Tom Albertson (incoming chairman of Round Table International) from Norway was present at the opening ceremony. Here, Prof. H. De Silva

(NCPA) cutting the ribbon, while Dr. Mansoor Chairman

CTRII and Dr. Tom from Norway look on.

Moratuwa Central Special Correspondent

